

Microsoft WINDOWS XP Service Pack 3 – How tell if you have installed XP SP3

Keywords: XP; service; pack; sp3; Windows; Microsoft; update; upgrade; critical; check; verify; error; problem; problem

Introduction (Please Read):

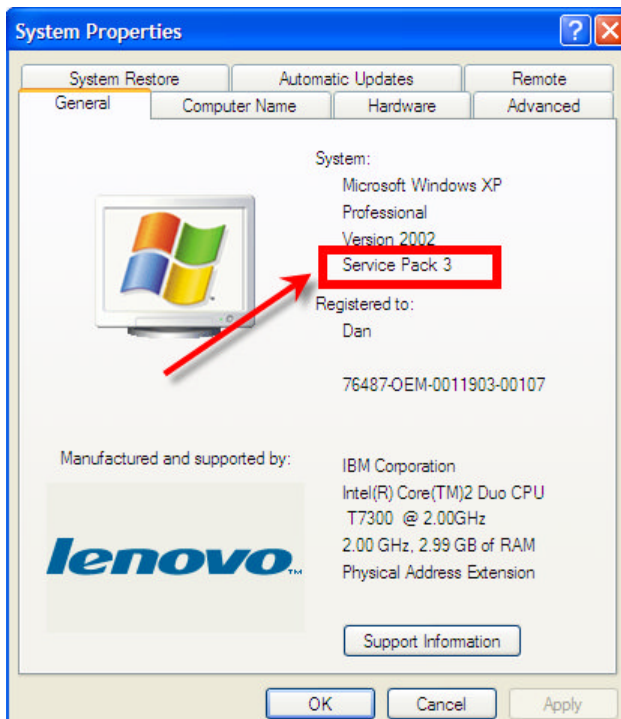

This document is intended to walk you through a few steps on how to verify if you have the Microsoft WINDOWS XP Service Pack 3 installed.

Step 1: Click on the Start button and select Control Panel

Step 2: Once in the Control Panel open the System program

Step 3: When the System Properties window opens you will be able to see if WINDOWS XP has had the Service Pack 3 Installed.

Step 4 – If you do not have Windows XP Service Pack 3 installed you can download this update directly from Microsoft using this link:

<http://www.microsoft.com/windows/products/windowsxp/sp3/default.aspx>